

John Hunt – Outstanding Contribution by an Individual

Colleagues and Friends, Ladies and Gentlemen

I appreciate the honour that ALGA has given me as the recipient of the Outstanding Contribution by an Individual Award.

Anything that I have achieved for the Association has always been with the support and encouragement of others and I would like to acknowledge the contribution of several organisations and persons in particular including:

- My employer Ventia and Jim Cole the Executive Manager of the Remediation Group and before Jim, Doug Moss;
- My colleagues at Ventia for the nomination;
- Peter Nadebaum for encouraging me to get involved in the early days;
- The team at Henry Davis York including Liz Wilde and Sarah Froh, who provided the venue for ALGA's Sydney forums in the early days;
- Members of the ALGA executive's past for their support when I was Vice-President and President especially Tony Scott, Jon Miller and Stpehan Pawelczyk;
- The ALGA Management Team for their enthusiastic and professional support, especially Elisabethe, Rosalind, Shardai, Karoline and Tarsha; and
- Finally, to all of you, the members of ALGA who have never ceased to surprise my by your generous contributin of time, ideas and passion to advancing the objectives of the Assoications.
